ABOUT THOMSON REUTERS COMPLIANCE LEARNING

Promote a culture of integrity and compliance

Thomson Reuters Compliance Learning creates new courses and updates existing course content to keep up with all of the latest global regulatory requirements. Whether your organization is a small business or a large enterprise operating locally or globally, we will keep you in the know.

Training for a global market

Thomson Reuters Compliance Learning courses offer an extensive global program, tailored to various regions and encompassing a wide range of topics. Our courses are supported in over 25 languages and include subjects such as Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing; MiFID II; Modern Slavery; Conduct Risk; Employee Conduct and Business Ethics; Market Conduct and Fraud; Prevention of Corrupt Practices; Privacy, Confidentiality and Information Security; and Risk Management.

Global courses

Our courses foster awareness and are comprehension-based, conceptual and principle-driven, as well as address topics that span globally. They include compliance directives and recommendations to prevent risk from all regulatory bodies.

Region-specific courses

Our region-specific courses are designed for topics that differ in regulation and applicaiton across different countries. They include carefully selected case studies, enforcement cases, news articles, business-related scenarios and examples to demonstrate relevance, enhance understanding and aid with retention.

Game-based learning

Gamification has become an increasingly effective learning tool, as this type of learning provides a fun and more interactive way for employees to engage with the content.

The uderlying objective of investing in compliance training is not only that employees start and finish a course, but also that they understand the content and apply it in their day-to-day business activities. The game-based learning method can exponentially increase attention, engagement and knowledge conversion by clarifying abstract and difficult concepts.

Options to fit every business need

Thomson Reuters Compliance Learning courses are fully customizable and scalable to fit the exact learning objectives set by your business. We offer a full range of options and can work with you to personalize any aspect to meet your specific requirements.

Thomson Reuters Compliance Learning courses are available in three different options:

Market-ready – These courses cover a wide range of topics, are off-the-shelf and ready for immediate use.

Customized – A market-ready course is used as a “base,” and the content is tailored to your specific needs. We work with you to personalize any aspect to meet your requirements, including:

- Adding your logo and branding
- Inserting your company policies and/or procedures
- Tailoring scenarios, content and case studies to your industry or business sector
- Customizing quizzes to test the areas that are most important to your organization

Bespoke – In addition to our extensive library of customizable market-ready courses, we can build courses to meet your exact specifications on any governance, risk and compliance topic. Bespoke courses can be built from customer-supplied content or specialized content provided by Thomson Reuters.

Market Conduct and Fraud

These interactive courses cover the main types of corruption that can occur in financial markets. They will help employees and firms recognize and mitigate unethical and illegal behavior, minimizing the risk of potential financial or reputational damage. These practical courses detail all the key areas governing the client/firm relationship, including the acceptance of new clients, communications with existing clients and advising and dealing. All our courses are in English unless otherwise stated.

Thomson Reuters Microlearning Courses

Our Thomson Reuters Microlearning course keeps your managers’ and employees’ knowledge and skills up to date through a process of continuous education. The library consists of short and impactful learning modules that reinforce key compliance concepts and is intended as a supplemental solution to our market-ready compliance training courses. This changes the approach to online compliance training from a once-a-year event to a steady flow of interesting and informative training that reinforces both the “tone at the top” and your organization’s core values.
